Cancellation/Transfer:

You can transfer or cancel your booking without penalty, provided five (5) full working days notice is given. Payment in full will be required if the transfer or cancellation does not meet these conditions. However, a substitute candidate may attend in your place at no extra charge.

In the event of a transfer within the terms, our clients are asked to pay against the original invoice as no invoice will be generated for the new course date. If your cancellation adheres to the terms and conditions, a full refund will be credited to your account. If payment was made by credit card, the amount will be refunded to your credit card.

CTS Training is committed to meeting certain costs which are non-refundable, therefore, we know you will understand the need to enforce our Cancellation/Transfer policy.

Onsite Training:

When training is being conducted at your premises, the venue, facilities, supply of PCs and setup of training room prior to commencement of the course, lunch and refreshments are the responsibility of the client.
